

Beverly Hills

For year-round family fun

Because of many things, Beverly Hills is a great place for families with children to consider. First of all, many other families with children live here, making Beverly Hills a place where both parents and children are more likely to develop social ties with other families, as well as find family-oriented services and community. The village's good public school district and large population of college-educated adults provide an environment conducive to academic values. With regard to real estate, Beverly Hills has a high rate of owner-occupied single family homes, which tends to reflect stability in the local community. Finally, Beverly Hills's overall crime rate is lower than average for the country.
