Bill Hallett Joins the Faculty of The Real Estate Institute

(Las Cruces) ---(January 31, 2008)--- Sue Williams, Lead Instructor of the Real Estate Institute (REI) is pleased to announce the addition of Bill Hallett to its faculty. He will begin offering continuing education credit courses at The Real Estate Institute in February. Bill Hallett has been licensed in New Mexico since 1978 and has held his New Mexico Real Estate Broker's License since 1981. During the past 25 years, he has held numerous volunteer positions with the Albuquerque Board of REALTORS® and Southwest Multiple Listing Service. Bill was the Instructor of the year in both 2001 and 2003, 1999 recipient of the "Salesperson of the Year" award from the Albuquerque Board of REALTORS®, and was the 2007 recipient of the prestigious "REALTOR® of the Year" award. Bill has served for several years on the New Mexico Real Estate Commission's Education Steering Committee, and also has served on and chaired the REALTORS® Association of New Mexico (RANM) Standard Forms Committee.

Bill has been instructing REALTORS® since 1995, and has been certified by the New Mexico Real Estate Commission as a continuing education instructor since 1999. Bill both teaches for several NMREC approved sponsors in the state, and also owns his own school, Mandatory And More, which is approved by the NMREC as a continuing education sponsor.
