THE CASSINA GROUP ADDS THREE NEW AGENTS TO ITS REAL ESTATE TEAM

MOUNT PLEASANT, S.C.—October 19, 2012- The Cassina Group, a leader in the Charleston real estate market, welcomes three new real estate agents to its team. Garrett Rust, Curry Smoak and Mat Spain have joined the company's real estate sales team.

“Our company has been growing at such a rapid pace, and in order to keep up with the increased demand from our clients, we knew we needed to expand our real estate team,” said company co-owner and Broker-in-Charge Robertson Allen. “Each of these agents is uniquely qualified and will be a great asset to The Cassina Group.”

Garrett Rust joins The Cassina Group with over 19 years of real estate experience. Starting her real estate career in Charlotte, Garrett quickly became one of the city's top producers with an annual sales volume averaging $15 million. She moved to Mount Pleasant in 2006. Her years of success in dealing with everything from luxury real estate to assisting first time home buyers make her a valuable asset to the company. Garrett was awarded Realtor of Distinction, Presidents Circle by CTAR in 2011.

A lifetime resident of Charleston, Curry Smoak is extremely familiar with the Charleston area and its surrounding communities. She has been in the real estate business for two years and has consistently been a top producer.

Mat Spain comes to The Cassina Team from Tennessee. Prior to starting with The Cassina Group, Spain worked as an internet marketing specialist for a Fortune 500 company and also explored a career in landscape management.

“Adding Mat, Curry and Garrett to The Cassina Group team further strengthens our ability to meet the needs of our clientele,” said Jimmy Dye, co-owner of the company. “We anticipate 2013 to be another year of growth for our company and we are delighted to have these three agents as part of our team.”
