FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE CASSINA GROUP ADDS TWO NEW REALTORS® TO ITS GROWING TEAM
Chip Eiserhardt & Heath Verner join the company's downtown Charleston office

MOUNT PLEASANT, S.C.—December 15, 2014- The Cassina Group, a leading Charleston real estate firm, is proud to announce the addition of Chip Eiserhardt and Heath Verner. The notable Charleston REALTORS® will work out of the company's downtown Charleston office located at 69 Morris Street in the Elliotborough section of the peninsula.

Chip Eiserhardt, a native of Charleston, grew up in the life of Real Estate. He attended Bishop England and graduated from Clemson University with a business degree. After graduating, Chip moved back to the Lowcountry to start his career in real estate. Chip can be reached at 843.442.7331.

Heath Verner, a veteran real estate agent, joins The Cassina Group with experience in commercial and residential real estate. Originally from Rock Hill, Verner moved to the Lowcountry to attend college and graduated from The Citadel in 1997. He has over ten years of experience working in real estate and can be reached at 843.425.9047.

"We are very excited to welcome both Chip and Heath to our company," said Jimmy Dye, co-founder and broker-in-charge of Cassina's Morris Street office. "Both bring extensive experience and will be strong additions to our team."
