FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE CASSINA GROUP REALTOR®, MEGHAN STEIN WEBSTER, EARNS DESIGNATION IN GLOBAL REAL ESTATE NETWORK

MOUNT PLEASANT, S.C. (April 21 2017)—Meghan Stein Webster, a REALTOR® with The Cassina Group, has earned the Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS) designation. The designation distinguishes her as one of only 31 CIPS in the state of South Carolina and one of 3,400 elite real estate professionals in over 45 countries. It was awarded to her by the National Association of REALTORS® for completing rigorous coursework devoted to learning international real estate practices and demonstrating proficiency in international business.

“We are proud of Meghan and her dedication to her profession” said Owen Tyler, Managing Broker and Broker-in-Charge at The Cassina Group, who also holds the CIPS designation. “This prestigious designation sets Meghan apart and will prove a valuable asset to her clients.”

The CIPS designation is synonymous with advanced expertise, a global perspective, and distinct understanding of a global buyer. As a designee, Webster has the knowledge and resources to efficiently work with international buyers, including U.S. residents looking to invest overseas, foreign buyers purchasing in the United States, as well a recent immigrants who might be unfamiliar with real estate transaction practices in the United States.

Meghan Webster is an experienced broker at The Cassina Group. She holds a law degree from Duquesne University. She is also a graduate of the Charleston Trident Association of REALTORS® Leadership Program and is currently participating in the South Carolina REALTORS® Leadership Program.
