FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GABRIELLA BROWN ANDREWS JOINS THE CASSINA GROUP

MOUNT PLEASANT, S.C.—The Cassina Group, a boutique real estate firm based in Charleston, SC, recently welcomed Gabriella Brown Andrews to its dedicated team of REALTORS®.

A native of Charleston, Gabriella joins The Cassina Group with years of experience in real estate sales and marketing. Before transitioning into sales, she spent five years in luxury real estate marketing for a developer of world-class, private sporting clubs including The Greenbrier Sporting Club in West Virginia and exclusive private island developments in the Turks & Caicos and the Bahamas. She attended Ashley Hall School in Charleston and earned a B.A. in Photo-Journalism at the University of Montana Missoula.

“Gabriella’s wealth of experience and intimate knowledge of the Charleston real estate market will prove an invaluable resource to our company and clients,” said Owen Tyler, Managing Broker of The Cassina Group. “We are looking forward to having her as part of our team.”

Gabriella Brown Andrews will be working from The Cassina Group’s Mount Pleasant location at 309 Coleman Boulevard. The firm has two other locations on the downtown peninsula—one at 69 Morris Street and one at 132 East Bay Street.

“Gabriella’s dedication to her clients and emphasis on building solid relationships align with our company’s core values,” said Jimmy Dye, co-founder and Broker in Charge of The Cassina Group. “She is a great fit and we are excited to have her on board.”
