THE CASSINA GROUP HIRES REALTORS® CAROLINE PARNELL AND WILLIAM BARNWELL

CHARLESTON, S.C. (March 13, 2018)— The Cassina Group is proud to announce that REALTORS® Caroline Long Parnell and William Barnwell have joined the Charleston-based real estate firm, which has offices in downtown Charleston and Mount Pleasant. Both Parnell and Barnwell are natives of Charleston and have many years of experience in the real estate profession.

"We are excited to have Caroline and William at The Cassina Group," said Owen Tyler, Managing Broker and Broker-in-Charge of the firm. "Their inherent love of the Lowcountry combined with their passion for real estate and superior client service make them valuable additions to our company."

A graduate of Ashley Hall School and a Business Administration major at Charleston Southern University, Caroline Long Parnell began her career in real estate in 2001. Since then, she has represented both buyers and sellers in residential and commercial transactions, with a focus on residential home sales. She is an active member of St. Andrews Church in Mt. Pleasant and serves on the PTA Board of Belle Hall Elementary.

"I am thrilled to be joining The Cassina Group," said Caroline. "My decision to move was based on Cassina's exceptional reputation and market leading tools so I may better serve my clients."

William Barnwell, a graduate of Porter-Gaud School, earned his degree in Real Estate Finance from Clemson University. Since obtaining his broker's license in 2014, William has been actively involved in the Charleston real estate market and has worked in new home construction and commercial development. When not working, he enjoys golf, boating and local sporting events.

"I'm excited to be working with Cassina," said Barnwell. "The professionals here and the tools available to all the agents really stand out. What an opportunity to further my career as a REALTOR®."
